Solomon is saying we are wise to _____ on and to _____ from the reality of _____.

It is those _____ moments where we step back and we are then able to see God's
_____.

God will give you wisdom if you _____ for it!

God lovingly desires to use every inconvenience,
every bad day, and every trial to make us
_____, _____ and _____ to Him!

You can't live your life thinking everything is fine
when it is not! Correction of a wise _____ has lasting _____.

2. WISDOM HELPS US TO REMEMBER GOD'S PURPOSE FOR _____.

Shortcuts in life rob us of the opportunity to _____.

It is not always God's _____ to get you out of the struggles of life immediately, but that He might _____ your life through the struggle!

The _____ for _____ makes us forget about the struggle of walking through difficulty and conflict.

_____ is necessary for growth!

3. WISDOM HELPS US REEVALUATE GOD'S PROMISE OF _____.

God wants us to be content in the _____ and not in the _____.

You can't change the _____, but you can change the _____.

Solomon's point is, it takes _____ to enjoy wealth and _____ can only be found in _____, and it takes wisdom to know that.

Money can buy you physical protection, but it takes wisdom to protect your _____, _____ and _____!

4. WISDOM HELPS US TO RECEIVE GOD'S PEACE THROUGH _____.

Wisdom does not mean we have all the _____, but wisdom does mean we serve a _____ who does!

Be assured you will always find wisdom at the _____ of Christ!
